

Honors Scholars Program Fall 2023 Presentation Guidelines

Dear Honors Scholars,

Thank you for taking the time to do an Honors in a Regular Course project. We hope you have an exciting and rewarding experience while creating your poster or panel projects this semester. Please view the below table for the required deadlines.

The Student Academic Conference and Dr. Janet Liou-Mark Honors and Undergraduate Research Scholars Poster Presentation awards ceremony will be held on Thursday, December 7, 2023.

	Deadlines
Submit Presentation Information* To ensure your project is included in the electronic poster presentation program, please submit your project information by the due date (view the second page for guidelines on submitting your presentation information).	November 6, 2023
Poster Presentation: Submit Poster Email the Honors Scholars Program Coordinator your final project poster in PDF format and elevator pitch in Microsoft Word format.	November 29, 2023
Panel Presentation: Submit Project and Presentation Outline Email the Honors Scholars Program Coordinator your panel presentation outline in Microsoft Word format.	November 29, 2023
Poster Presentation Honors in a Regular Course project poster judging	December 6, 2023 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM, Academic Complex Lobby
Honors Scholars Panels Honors in a Regular Course project panel judging	December 7, 2023 9:00 AM - 12:30 PM, Academic Complex, room A105
Dr. Janet Liou-Mark Honors and Undergraduate Research Scholars Poster Presentation Awards Ceremony	December 7, 2023 12:45 PM - 2:15 PM, Amphitheater LG30

Guidelines for Submitting Presentation Information*

Please send the below information via email with no table formatting. This format will help expedite the layout of the program.

Title of the Poster

Student's name(s) [First name/Last name – if more than one student, please list the names in alphabetical order by last name]

Professor's name(s) [First name/Last name – if more than one professor, please list the names in alphabetical order by last name]

Course number: Course title

Name of grant and grant number (if applicable)

Honors Scholars Projects

Making Connections, Developing Learning Resources for Students in Dining Room Operations

Bannesa Espinal Cruz

Prof. Karen Goodlad

HMG 2305: Dining Room Operations

Special Projects

Remote Sensing & Land Surface Temperature from Satellite Observations

Isatu Jalloh & Angel Vargas

Profs. Zahra Sharif, Reginald Blake, & Hamidreza Norouzi

NSF IUSE GEO Grant #2023174

Culinary/Pastry Future Innovators – Engaging Tomorrow's Leaders of the Hospitality Industry Through Development and Exhibition of Creative Works

Michelle Chen, Amber Furey-Lessen, Aquille Pierre, David Rivera, Charles Tripoli, Kristen Tsui

Culinary Pastry Innovators (CPI Fall 2018)

Prof. Robert Walljasper, CEC, CCE, CHE

Predicting Seemingly Esoteric Probabilistic Distributions by Simulations

Thinh Le

Prof. Satyanand Singh

Interdisciplinary Projects Design Game-based Learning: Playtesting a Thesis

Michael Lewis, Kimberly Ramgopal, & Cindy Veliz

Profs. Tamrah Cunningham & Reneta Lansiquot

ENG 1710ID: Introduction to Language and Technology

Presentation Guidelines

Please submit your poster or panel presentation outline by the deadline. There will be sessions to support honors students in presenting their projects.

Thursday, November 2

12:45 PM - 2:15 PM

Presentation Consultation

Dr. Amanda L. Almond, Computer Lab G603

Thursday, November 9

12:45 PM - 2:15 PM

Public Speaking Refresher

Dr. Zheng Zhu, Academic Complex, room A517

Guidelines for Poster Judging

To be eligible for poster judging, you must post your honors project poster in the Academic Complex Lobby by 9:30 AM on Wednesday, December 6. Be sure to have an "elevator pitch" prepared that quickly describes your project to another person.

If you have any concerns or questions, feel free to contact us. We look forward to seeing you at our Student Academic Conference.